

Attorney

Rebecca Weisenberg

Creative. Rebecca loves to solve problems, and in the intellectual property world, that usually requires a creative solution.

She combines her creativity with her love for knowledge as she delves headlong into the diverse areas many of her clients occupy. By combining her creativity, knowledge, and experience as an engineer, Rebecca gets a kick out of finding unique solutions to her clients' problems. Outside of the office, Rebecca enjoys traveling and spending time with her husband and two sons.
